President's Message

Those of you who know me, know that I'm not much of a talker. That being said, there is a lot to talk about right now. Since we were all together for our Christmas party in December (heck of a party, thanks to Jeff and Tina Hood for hosting), we have had good news and we have had very bad news. I'll start with the good.

The Maylene School is ours for our Guild Shop (at least for the next 3 to 5 years). There's lots of work to be done before we can take up residence but the wheels have already been put into motion. It will take about six to eight weeks for us to get our permanent power hooked up. Meanwhile, A. R. Bray has been assigned to get some internal repairs made so that we can get painting done. There's some electrical work needed so we can hook up our equipment (Charlie Ard is heading up that effort), moving the equipment, and all sorts of work ahead. We're going to need a Shop Manager and several Shop Supervisors. We will also be needing lots of other help along the way and are counting on each of you to assist.

On the bad news side, the Guild lost a wonderful member and a true friend, Fred Baker, on Christmas Day. I can't say enough about what a good person Fred was or what a great loss this is for us all. (See page 2 for memorials) The Board voted in its January meeting to rename the Elsie Baker Memorial Toy Program to the Fred and Elsie Baker Memorial Toy Program in his honor.

2008 is our silver anniversary year. The Alabama Woodworkers Guild has been around for 25 years. How fitting that we should be able to open our own shop in this year.

I'm looking forward to us making some sawdust together! Mike

Fred Baker
12/2/34—12/25/07

During our pre-meeting time this month, we will be collecting dues, revising our directory information, signing folks up for classes and talking about our new woodworking center. We'll also be asking you what kind of programs and classes you are looking for in 2008. This would be a good time to talk to John Lawson about his table class. (see article page 2)

January 2008

Our Program is Going to the Birds, Carved Wooden Ones

Dr. Ronald Cater, a well known carver of wood, has agreed to present our program for January. He will bring his tools to show what he uses to create them as well as some of his bird carvings.

A Letter to Mr. Fred Baker

Dear Fred,

I didn't get a chance to tell you this stuff before you left so I'll write you a letter. Thanks for teaching me how to use a dovetail jig. I put fancy dovetails on boxes and people think I know what I'm doing, but really it's just you. Most of what I know of woodworking I learned from you. Among the many things you taught me are chisel sharpening, arc cosines, electronic orbits, oxidation numbers, the laws of inertia and momentum, how to gin cotton, film a football game, make a bead with a skew and catch a pig without getting your clothes dirty.

Thanks for all the time you spent upstairs at Thuston's. All the people that you influenced and instructed there are much richer for having known you. No, we didn't make much sawdust but the stuff eventually got done, we all learned a lot, had fun together, and ate like kings. Considering the amount of hamburger and barbeque eaten there, you must surely be the king of cholesterol.

Thanks for your kind advise and quiet voice when my life was bumpy. "It'll all work out ok" was what you said and it proved to be true. In the back of my mind was always the thought "Mr. Baker says I'm doing the right thing." Your Opp country boy demeanor concealed an intellect and wisdom that I came to rely on. You spent your whole life doing things for other people and were a fine example to us young whippersnappers.

Thanks for introducing me to Brubeck. As you know, my own father was a jazz musician and wanted me to follow in his footsteps. I wish he had lived long enough to see you turn me into a jazz fan. I can still see you in your truck with music roaring out like a teenager. I am listening to your music as I write this and I can hear your voice. "Alright Cholly, I got to meet Brubeck", and you told me all about it.

So thanks for all the things you did for me and many others. We will never forget you and I will hear your voice. Please look after me from heaven like you did from Trussville, I will need it.

Sincerely, Your student,

Charlie Ard

Thoughts from Brian Stauss

Several years ago I took my the first difficult Guild classes, the European workbench. Fred Baker was one of the two instructors. His specialty was construction of the tail vise. It took two classes and some homework to construct that vise. Fred knew his stuff. He taught us exactly how to make the vise - it had to be "just so" or it wouldn't work properly. When it was done, I just couldn't put a metal, store bought screw on it. No, all those smooth moving, perfectly meshed wooden parts called for a wooden screw to be in character with the rest of the vise and bench, and that's what I did.

Fred's woodworking knowledge and skills amazed me, and it was at that time that I really started to appreciate the many talents in the Guild. Thank you Fred, for what you taught me and have shared with your fellow woodworkers over the years. I'll be thinking about you when I'm making sawdust at that bench.

Fred, My Teacher

A poor student at best, I "got by" through high school. I didn't have a clue what I wanted to do with my life until I found myself in one of Fred Baker's Bessemer Tech programming classes. Fred made me WANT to know more and more until suddenly I was a "good student". It's thanks to Fred that I had a skill, a career, and a good job for 30 years.

When I was looking to retire and thinking about what I would do with the rest of my life, I ran into Fred at a Guild meeting. Once more Fred shared one of his life's passions and started me down a new road. Much of who Buzz Kelly is today is because of Fred Baker and the time he took to share his love for life. Thanks Fred!!

Table Class with John Lawson

The class will start on February 23rd and run for 6-8 weeks. The project will be a Shaker type dining table that will seat 8 or 10 people. We will use all the tools generally used in joinery, but also the lathe. I would describe this table as an elegant Shaker table with arched trestles. The class will be in John Lawson's shop on 24th street unless the new Guild Shop becomes available. The plan is to do the table this year, and the chairs to go with it next fall/winter or in 2009 sometime.

It will be open to six people and the skill level is medium to advanced (if you are new to turning, don't let the lathe scare you off).

Cost for the class is $85 and does not include materials. A sign up sheet will be available at the January meeting.

String Along with Buzz and Nelda

Sunday, February 17th from 1 to 5 PM, the Kellys will be leading a small group of around 6 people to do some stringing. Participants will create a sample board to practice the techniques taught in the class.

Cost for the class is $20 which includes materials. (New members can redeem free class coupons for the cost of this class.) The class will be held at Buzz and Nelda's home, 89 Pawnee Drive, Indian Springs, AL. 205-733-1258

The Guild Policy Statement on the Operation of Our Woodworking Shop (Adopted 3/1/07)

Reason for Policy:

This Policy sets forth the operating requirements necessary for the safe, efficient and orderly operation of the "shop" maintained by the "Guild" for the use of its members.

Policy Requirements:

A Shop Manager (appointed by the board) shall establish and administer shop rules and regulations that are necessary to implement the requirements of this policy and/or are necessary for the safe, efficient and orderly operation of the shop.

Members are responsible for their own safety and must make themselves aware of and comply with all shop rules and regulations. Woodworking is a dangerous activity. Accidents often occur. A member must not attempt any operation in the shop for which he/she is unsure of how to accomplish safely nor shall he/she operate any machine for which he/she is not certain of how to safely operate it. He/she shall inspect each machine prior to use to assure that it is in safe operating condition.

All persons in the shop during hours of operation must have signed a Liability Release Waiver within the prior 12 months and said Waiver must be on file at the shop. Use of the shop shall be limited to (a) Guild sponsored group work sessions, (b) Guild sponsored training sessions and (c) individual member work sessions.

Guild sponsored work or training sessions shall have scheduling priority over member work sessions. Hours of operation shall be set by the Shop Manager or his designee. Work sessions shall be scheduled by the Shop Manager or his designee.

Use of the shop is limited to Guild members only. Members may be accompanied by "helpers" to assist with material handling, glue ups, etc. Any person under 18 years of age must be accompanied and supervised by a parent or guardian. Individual members will not use the shop for monetary gain or for commercial purposes.

A designated Shop Supervisor must be on the premises at all times that any work session is in process. The Shop Supervisor(s) may set a maximum number of people using the shop at any one time as may be warranted by nature of on-going activities.

The Shop Supervisor shall require any member, who in his opinion is performing an unsafe act, to stop. The member must stop the act. However, he/she may appeal the decision to the Shop Manager.

Members will be required to use their own tools and equipment where not supplied by the Guild. Members will provide whatever materials and supplies that may be required for their personal projects and will replace any Guild supplies they may use.

Members are responsible to maintain a clean working environment at all times. Members will clean-up their work areas before leaving the shop.

The Shop Manager may suspend or revoke any member's shop usage privileges for failure to comply with shop rules. A member may appeal such a suspension or revocation to the board.

The requirements of this Policy shall be prominently posted and displayed on the shop premises.

Gift Contributions

One of the high lights of our Christmas Party each year is the drawing for door prizes. Several of our members either make something and donate it or get out and shake the bushes to get merchants to donate something. Without those members we would not have any door prizes. The following members did one of the above and deserve our thanks. So, at the first opportunity tell them how much you appreciate them:

Paul Mancill
Jim Anchors
Walter Barnett
Jeff Hood
Cliff Daniels
Joe Hurst

Guild Patrons

We are very fortunate to have the following patrons who support the Guild. They are excellent suppliers of products or services in the local area that provide monetary support or allow us to use their various facilities for Guild functions:

The Dogwood Institute School of Fine Woodworking

Offers woodworking classes for beginner to advanced woodworkers on various topics with concentration on teaching the "Process" of making furniture. Our signature courses on Foundations for Fine Woodworking, has been extremely popular and guides the student through a series of Foundations Courses to prepare them for building quality furniture. Other courses include veneering, turning, finishing and project classes. Next year the school is expanding facilities/courses and will offer several weeklong courses. All courses are taught by master craftsmen with a vast amount of experience in different areas of expertise. Courses are conducted in our spacious horse farm in Alpharetta, GA featuring two large fully equipped barns including a turning studio & steam bending equipment. The environment lends to learning woodworking skills in a pleasant surrounding. Our mission: "To provide quality instructional courses to individuals who are interested in furthering their knowledge of woodworking at all levels of interest and skill." 1640 Mid-Broadwell Rd, Alpharetta, GA 30004 (770)-751-9571 www.dogwoodwoodworking.com
