President's Message

We sure had an abundance of jigs and fixtures in the June meeting. As you all could see (especially the newer woodworkers) jigs really help with many operations, in particular those repetitive operations. Thanks again to Cheryl for organizing this and to all the members that brought their special jigs.

From what I am hearing, several of you are taking advantage of the mentoring program. This is great and I encourage others of you to seek help from one of the mentors. We have a wealth of woodworking knowledge in this guild, and all you have to do is ask for help.

We had a great orientation session on the 23rd of June with 33 members in attendance. I think if you asked any one of the attendees they would tell you that they learned something about the guild that they didn't already know. Another session will probably be scheduled in the future as new members join the guild, or if there is enough interest among the current membership.

The $500 gift certificate at Hardwoods of Alabama and the Rockwell saw will be given away at the July meeting held at Hardwoods of Alabama. Tickets will be available for purchase on that day. Since we added the Rockwell saw late in the game it was decided that there can only be one winner per item. In other words, one person cannot win both items.

According to the by-laws I have to appoint a 3 person nominating committee by the July meeting. Lynn Smith, Ralph Hardwick, and Wayne Burris have agreed to serve on that committee. If they approach you and ask you to serve in some capacity, be positive and say yes!

As was advertised, we had a work day on the 30th of June to start on the North room. We had 7 members show up, and after a rough start with getting the right tools and equipment together, we got a fair section of the flooring down. I am sure Mike will be scheduling other sessions in the near future, and we could use several more members to help.

I would like to thank Dan Langford for his generous donation of a refrigerator to replace the old one that just quit on us.

Orientation Session

We had a good turnout for the last orientation session. President Cliff Daniels did a great job of covering the history and workings of the Guild. Thanks to everyone who attended! If you missed it, you really missed out on some great information, fellowship, and food! Thanks to Eddie and Patricia Heerten for preparing an outstanding lunch!
