President's Message

Our March meeting is on the first day of spring. Can you believe how quickly time is getting away from us this year already? Glen Huey will be here before we know it!

Since our February meeting, the shop at Maylene has undergone some amazing changes. Many of you have put in long, hard hours to make it all happen but the work is far from over. As of this writing, plans are underway to put in an alarm system, build a sign and move our equipment on site. Your various committees and board members are spending many long hours planning and working on what we have decided to call the "Woodworking Education Center." Thanks to you all for your support and assistance. We will likely be asking for even more as we strive to have the Center ready to host the Glen Huey Seminar in May. This, our 25th year, is turning into a very busy and rewarding time to be a Guild member!!

The Fridays at Woodcraft Group will be showing off the game boards they have made for the Alabama School for the Deaf and Blind and some of their other projects at our March pre-meeting. Come talk to them about their plans for our 25th Anniversary year!!

Dean Black is Coming

Always, one of our favorites, Dean Black of Blackwood Galleries in Springville, AL, will present our program for March. Dean's talents range from woodworking, to woodturning, to blacksmith and gunsmith. Whether turning huge columns for buildings, designing displays for the Birmingham Museum of Art, or creating gates for the Birmingham Botanical Gardens' Japanese Gardens, Dean always has an interesting and entertaining story to tell. You won't want to miss this one!

It's not too early to start thinking about a project for the Alabama Woodworkers Guild, Inc., 2008 Annual Show! This is our 25th year so let's have a great show to demonstrate how we have progressed. Last year we had over 100 entries and one of the best shows ever. Let's try to beat that!

The show is at the Hoover Library again this year. Set up is Saturday, October 18 and the break down is October 26. We will have a reception on Tuesday, evening October 22nd.

Mark your calendars!

WAWAPALOOSA

The Woodworkers' Association of West Alabama (WAWA) will have its annual WAWAPALOOSA Saturday, May 3, 2008, similar to, but smaller than, AWG's Annual Show, with dinner and a speaker. Craig Nutt will be the speaker and judge of the exhibit. We invite all AWG members (and significant others) to join us for the entire event. The schedule for the day is as follows: 8 - 11 a.m., set-up of exhibits; 11 a.m. - 3 p.m., judging; 3 - 5 p.m., public invited to view exhibit; 5:30 p.m. dinner; 6:00 p.m. speaker.

Bring anything you've made of wood; there are no other restrictions. You may retrieve your entry after 5:00 p.m. We hope you'll join us.
